

The CPCU–Loman Education Foundation is a nonprofit organization that funds the advancement of education in the fields of insurance, risk management, and risk bearing.

Your Contributions Support the Foundation's Work:

- Matching Scholarship Fund—To help CPCU Society chapters that establish scholarship programs to foster insurance education at the college level, and/or contribute to the Griffith Foundation for Insurance Education (formerly Insurance Education Institute [IEI]) Teacher Scholarship Program.
- Publications—To keep insurance professionals informed on industry trends and issues, the Foundation funds various publications, including special reports and books, such as Let the Trumpet Resound: The Insurance Industry in the 21st Century, by Larry G. Brandon, CPCU.
- Educational Sponsorship—To help in the continuing education of CPCUs, industry professionals, and the general public, the Foundation sponsors speakers, seminars, and programs including the popular “Loman Lecture,” at the CPCU Society’s Annual Meeting and Seminars, and a motivational speaker at the Leadership Summit.
